How standing orders work

List the titles you want to receive in the panel opposite, send your current credit statement if you have more than £5 already in credit with BBR, or pay the deposit shown. When each new issue is mailed to you, the catalogue price less 5% is simply deducted from your credit. You get a statement of your credit balance with every mailing, and an automatic reminder if your credit runs low. You can add more titles to your standing order, or request a refund of your balance whenever you like, giving you complete flexibility and security.
